TOSS & SERVE AUTHENTIC GOURMET CUISINE

We are proud to introduce a range of pasta, sauces & soups from Veeke and Thomas that reject, at the outset, complication and elaborateness in preparation and yet retains flavour and freshness. What we offer is a 'home grown, selected' range of products that allows Indian flavors and ingredients to permeate what is otherwise quintessentially European cuisine - ingredients and tastes that can be found in any Indian kitchen!

the method of preparation we have adopted remains true to its original style. we suggest that you keep it simple! toss the contents of the packet into a pan boil or heat over a flame or heat in a microwave till it loses its bind or attains soup consistency.
